Class B singles), score, how ties were settled, and shootoff scores if you know them. Attach separate sheet if needed.

Please be as complete as possible—listing date, club, and score. Attach separate sheet if needed.

To be eligible for the 2011 TRAP & FIELD Rookie of the Year titles (men's, women's or age-group), you MUST meet the following qualifications: Register ATA targets for the very first time during the 2011 target year, which runs from Sept. 1, 2010 through Aug. 31, 2011. If you shot any ATA targets any time prior to Sept. 1 of last year, you are not eligible for the 2010 R-O-Y awards.

Men—Shoot at a minimum of 2,000 singles, 1,000 handicap and 500 doubles targets during ATA registered tournaments in the 2011 target year. (But see ATA Official Rules, Section II, B.)

Women and age-group shooters—Shoot at a minimum of 1,500 singles and 500 handicap during ATA registered tournaments in the 2011 target year. (But see ATA Official Rules, Section II, B.)

Apply in writing to TRAP & FIELD. Fill out this form (a photocopy is okay) or send a letter of application to T&F at 1000 Waterway Blvd., Indianapolis, IN 46202; fax 317-633-2084; e-mail editorial@trapandfield.com. Deadline is Oct. 31, 2011.

Please tell us more about your shooting. For example: how were you introduced to trap; what gun/shells/other equipment do you use; who or what advice did you find helpful; what did you enjoy most about your rookie season; did your family join you on the line; what important lessons did you learn; what would you have done differently; what are your goals?

These questions are suggestions for discussion only; you need not limit your answer to these areas, or you may choose to address entirely different subjects. Any additional information is appreciated and will add depth to the story printed in T&F. Attach separate sheet.
